

Academic Dean - Lawrence Upper School – 12 month position

Immediate opening

Lawrence School seeks an instructional leader with a passion for teaching and learning. This person will work closely with the Director of Student Life, Dean of Students, and members of the Upper School management team to develop and implement curriculum and lead a faculty of 35 and a student body of 210. The Academic Dean will play a pivotal role in continuing to develop the Upper School curriculum for students in grades 7-12.

The ideal candidate holds a master's degree and has five years of successful classroom experience with students who struggle with learning and attention differences. A passion for learning and an understanding of professional learning communities is a must. The candidate will possess a high capability to integrate technology and will bring experience in assessment, differentiation, and the development of interdisciplinary studies. The successful candidate will also demonstrate the ability to engage, inspire, and empower faculty.

Lawrence serves students with learning, language, and attention differences. We are the only independent school in Northeast Ohio for students with distinct learning styles. Ninety-six percent of our graduates matriculate to two and four-year colleges.

Background check/fingerprinting required.

Applicants should send a cover letter, resume and a list of three (3) professional references to:
